

UK MANFRED MANN STAR RELEASES NEW SINGLE

And it's been almost 50 years!

Mike Hugg, as the drummer in the chart-topping Manfred Mann has enjoyed several Billboard hits and has now produced what could be THE great feel-good summer song for 2018.

The single, OZONE, is performed by RedLIPZ – a band of studio musicians, including singer Amba Tremain.

The song, written by Gethyn Jones, is inspired by the stunning views across the Solent from Stokes Bay, Gosport in Hampshire, UK.

Mike Hugg is still playing and touring with The Manfreds – who had a string of Top Twenty singles including Do Wah Diddy Diddy, Mighty Quinn (Quinn The Eskimo), Sha La La, Pretty Flamingo, and Come Tomorrow. Mike, working with Manfred, wrote hundreds of award-winning TV jingles in the UK. He also composed the theme tune to the The Likely Lads, the much-loved BBC TV show and composed and recorded the music for the motion picture Up The Junction.
